

Why upgrade your Nor140 to firmware v4.0?

- Significant improved Building Acoustic module – with support for the new ISO 10052, ISO 16283, ASTM E336 and ASTM E1007
- Testing of Service Equipment according to ISO16032
- Moving L_{eq} feature added
- Support for the latest revision of the STIPA standard
- Support for the latest revision of the room acoustic RC mark II calculation

Check out the details!

- Building Acoustic mode is improved for the latest Standards as well as extended for Service Equipment measurements.
The BA mode of version 4.x offers the following sub-modes:
 1. Airborne survey grade testing in accordance with ISO 10052.
 2. Impact survey grade testing in accordance with ISO 10052.
 3. Airborne engineering grade testing in accordance with ISO 16283-1, BS-ISO 140-4 and ASTM E336.
 4. Impact engineering grade testing in accordance with ISO 16283-2, BS-ISO 140-7 and ASTM E1007.
 5. Airborne survey grade testing in accordance with French NF-ISO 10052.
 6. Impact survey grade testing in accordance with French NF-ISO 10052.
 7. Service Equipment survey grade testing in accordance with ISO 10052.
 8. Service Equipment engineering grade testing in accordance with ISO 16032.
- Measures now the 'Moving L_{eq} ' value in normal mode.
This feature contains two individual moving values over user-defined time-frames with toggle markers depending on preset threshold levels.
- The STIPA optional measurement is improved to measure in accordance with the latest IEC 60268-16 version 3 Standard.
- Calculation of the room criteria RC value is improved to calculate in accordance with the latest RC Mark II Standard.
- Correction feature is extended for use of Nor4576 large windscreens.
- The Nor140 display shows the running values of SPL, L_{eq} and L_{max} during remote control from the Nor850/Suite.

With the release of software version 4, we continue our philosophy to support our customers with firmware upgrades to keep their instruments upgraded with new features and support for new or revised standards long time after their initial purchase. This is a service we are pleased to offer our customer which grant us their confident by purchasing Norsonic instruments.

50 year anniversary offer!

Free upgrade for all units purchased after March 1, 2016.

Older units may upgrade from v3 to V4 for NOK 3813 or EURO 477 per instrument.

For older versions contact your local Norsonic dealer to acquire V4 option codes.